Day Rates

Does it seem like your IT requirements are growing?
Need the help of an experienced tech on a regular basis?

Our Day Rates may be suited for you and you can keep your business running smoothly with minimal interruptions.

A tech can attend your office for a block of time on a regular schedule to knock over those pesky IT issues that you're having and to provide support to your employees.

For example, you can pre-book a technician to go onsite to your location every Tuesday for 3 hours, or you can have someone visit your site the first Monday of every month for 7 hours - it's that simple*!
